On Friday 6 December the Australian Croatian Chamber of Commerce & Industries (S.A.) held its annual dinner in Adelaide in Conjunction with the Council for International Trade & Commerce (CITCSA) award night.

The Gala dinner was held at the Adelaide Town Hall with prominent speakers including the Deputy Premier Mr. Kevin Foley and Lord Mayor Mr. Alfred Huang. The CITCSA awards are held each year and honor the achievements of the Country Specific Chambers of Commerce in promoting exports and trade for South Australia. Over 350 people attended the awards including twenty for the Croatian Chamber. The Croatian Ambassador to Australia Dr. Mladen Ibler and his wife were guest of the Chamber.

One of the highlights of the night was the charity auction with David Tudorovic, President of the Croatian Chamber acting as auctioneer. Proceed from the event went to the Adelaide's Women's & Children's Hospital.

The dinner completed a very busy year for the Chamber which has been working on a number of projects in Adelaide including the establishment and promotion of the Credit Union and development of community web sites under the www.croatiasa.com banner.
